

Teacher's Day Celebration Held With Great Gusto

THALOOR

In India, Teachers' Day is celebrated annually on September 5 to mark the birthday of the country's former President, scholar, philosopher and Bharat Ratna awardee, Dr Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, who was born on this day in 1888. Ever since then, September 5 is celebrated as Teacher's Day across schools, colleges, universities and educational institutions. Students put on performances, dances and host elaborate shows for their most-loved teachers. Nilgiri College took all its responsibility and gave the opportunity to the vibrant students of the college to chair the seats and take up the charge on the same day. However, with the normalcy fast restoring and students back in campus, it is once again that time of the year when cultural programmes and events are organised in college. Students bring flowers, sweets and cards for their teachers to express their gratitude and love while senior students dress up in formals and take/supervise classes so that teachers can take a break and enjoy the celebrations.
